The Living Constitution - Are a Group of Outlaws Staging a Robbery in Broad Daylight Everyday?

By Ronnie E. Cooper

Any law or law maker that does not abide, protect, and defend the Constitution that gives it its authority is outside the law, an outlaw. The outlaws pervert the law and substitute their own law for the true authority.

The USA Constitution is the Supreme Law of the land. All others laws are subservient to it. Any law that does not directly find its support in the Constitution is an outlaw. The rightful places for the law are with:

1. the people (the law keepers, those found worthy of public office to be a representation, the jury and the voters)
2. the States (independent sovereign areas not associated with the federal government)

We have heard that our Constitution is a living document; it is NOT! Our Constitution is our foundation for our law; it is our protection from our own government; it is to be read, protected, proclaimed, and defended against all enemies, both foreign and domestic.

If you are not aware of how it is being treated with disrespect by our government, then you don't know what it says or what is happening in our land or the protections it has for us. Those protections need restored. A new vanguard of protectors needs to be set in place. We the People will do it, or we the people will perish and the outlaws will take over this land.

Footnote: Article 6 - Debts, Supremacy, Oaths

All Debts contracted and Engagements entered into, before the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation.

This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial Officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States.

Institute on the Constitution Class

ARK is encouraging as many groups as possible to teach this course to your group until you have saturated as many of them as possible. Then teach it to others. Be a multiplier. Our Constitution was made ONLY for a moral and educated people. Teach it to your children, your church, your Bible study (you will be amazed how much Bible study is in the Constitution); but first you must be taught.

At least two classes should be on going throughout this year. ARK is hoping that SW Ohio will get at least 20 going. The goal is to teach hundreds who will teach thousands, preferably before elections. We need to know our real rights, not those we are told by Socialists or atheists. We cannot trust this to the public schools; they have failed our children in every area giving our country the lowest literacy rate in our nation's history (urban areas as low as 15%, based on the standard of ability to read the daily newspaper of 1800 and the Bible (KJV in 1800).

The workbooks contain all the materials needed by the student and are $35.00 (including shipping and taxes). The host kit is $150.00 + S&H/taxes and contains the teacher's manual and all 17 DVD segments shown over the 12 weeks of the course (12 by Dr John Eidsmoe's "Institute on the Constitution" and 5 by David Barton), plus some posters. The host kit is reusable. If your group schedules a class needing at least 20 workbooks (they can be shared in families, etc.), ARK will give you the host kit FREE or $120 off the workbooks – your choice! If you need more workbooks than 20, we will work with you.

Ron Cooper (or Ricki Pepin) will also give additional help to the moderators running the classes on how to do effective classes. Further, the entire class process and supplemental references and materials that you can use to customize your class is available on ARKY's website @ <http://www.arky.org/Constitution/index.htm>.

The class is also now available online directly from the Institute on the Constitution @ <http://www.iotconline.com/courses.php?s=2a6381cb087920bf4a318c836bfd2ed1> for $30.00 for 4 months use.

PATRIOTISM & SERMONS

Ron Cooper

A list of sermon topics from the founding era to share with your groups as to what preachers used to teach from the pulpit regarding government! Yes, God is over government too! The main premise of the book containing these is that Jesus' Great Commission in Matthew 28 is twofold: Evangelistic - go and make disciples of all nations; AND Cultural - and teach them ALL the things I [Jesus] taught you.

The Law of Nature and Nature's God - 1669 - Rev. John Davenport

Government is Limited by Law - 1692 - Rev. Gershom Bulkley

Duties of Civil Rulers - 1754 - Rev. Jonathan Mayhew

Right to Resist Tyranny - 1742 - Rev. Nathaniel Appleton

Civil Disobedience - 1738 - Rev. Jared Eliot

A Just War in Self-Defense - 1768 - Rev. Jonas Clarke

Natural, Equal Rights of Life, Liberty and Property - 1759 - Rev. Samuel Langdon

patriotism – Love of one's country; the passion which aims to serve one's country, either in defending it from invasion, or protecting its rights and maintaining its laws and institutions in vigor and purity. Patriotism is the characteristic of a good citizen, the noblest passion that animates a man. (Webster's 1828)

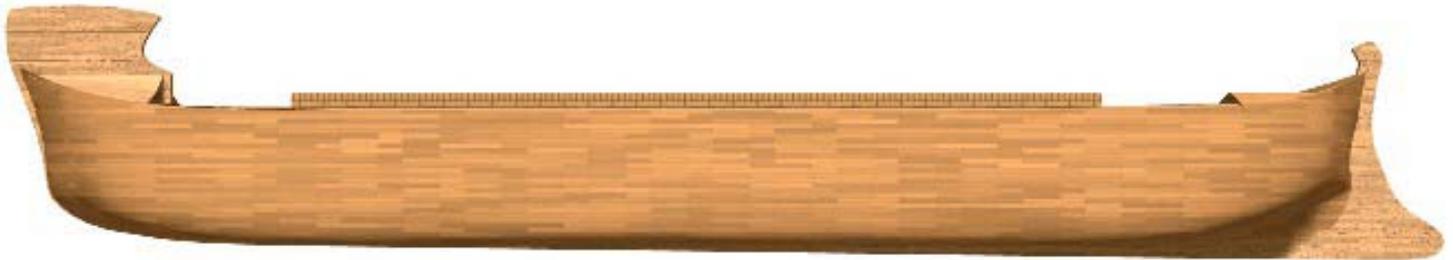

[Question – How can we protect or maintain our rights and laws – the Constitution & Bill of Rights – if we don't know what they say?]

Scientific Truths of the Bible Part 7: Noah's Ark Feasibility Study

By Mark Jurkovich

How many have heard arguments like this? "The Ark never would have survived", or "There's no way all the animals could have fit", or even "How could they have possibly cared for all of them anyway?" Actually, they are all valid questions that need to be addressed. But when studied in the light of Scripture's description of the ark, we will see that the ark was indeed sea worthy, could fit all the animals God said to put on, and even that it was feasible for eight people to care for them.

Genesis 6 (and 8:6, 13) describes the ark. There are not a lot of details, but what it provides is revealing. The dimensions are given, the number of decks, type of building material, type of door, that it had a window, and was to have a roof and a few other details.

The dimensions are most telling, and they are nothing like the cute children's toys we are all familiar with. It has been determined that the ratios of length, width and height of the ark are at the optimum balance for strength, stability, and comfort for the passengers (a fun demonstration can be found at http://www.worldwideflood.com/ark/hull_form/hull_optimization.htm). The figure shows the current concept for how the ark may have looked, incorporating features used in ancient large vessels (which they likely learned from the original) while keeping true to the Biblical description.

But could such a large vessel have been built out of wood? True, the largest of modern day wooden vessels, the Wyoming built in 1909, had many problems. But it was due to poor design and workmanship. There are records of ancient Mediterranean ships from the 7th to 3rd centuries BC of very large size, and the Chinese in the 1400's AD had ships possibly up to 450 feet long. The ark would not have been much larger than that.

Still not enough room? The Bible says the ark was to carry two of every kind of bird and land animal. "Kinds" in the Bible are not the same as species, but more closely related to family, and possibly as low as genus. Studies have shown that there was more than enough room on the ark to fit the necessary food as well as all the genus' of land animal, including extinct kinds (i.e. dinosaurs; there would be no need to bring in the largest of each kind, younger versions of these would do just as well).

Care for the animals - space does not permit details, but it is highly likely that Noah and family incorporated features like the following.

Food for each animal likely stored near them; Highly plausible had created self feeders and waste collection; Body heat and windows at the top could provide sufficient natural ventilation; Plus many could have gone into a hibernation mode further cutting down work load.

A lot more could be said, but better for you to check out the references below. In summary, was Noah's ark feasible? Another resounding YES.

Behind The Scenes at the Creation Museum

by Ray & Tammy Collins

On Friday, February 12, promoted as a special "Valentine's Treat," Answers in Genesis presented their new program, Behind The Scenes. A behind the scenes look at the museum has not occurred since the opening of the museum. Many people, like ourselves, walked through some very rough looking unfinished areas prior to the official opening of the museum on May 28, 2007. We saw what was going to be the best display of Creation in the world! However, on this particular day, February 12, 2010, we were taken behind the scenes of the finished product. By the end of the evening, all we could say was "Praise the Lord."

Ken Ham kicked off the evening with a brief history of how the Creation Museum came about. Mr. Ham has a new DVD about this experience entitled, "A Fire in My Bones," which tells the account of how it all started in Australia. A copy of this video is available for loan in the ARKY library. We are truly blessed to have Ken and his family serve as missionaries to us Americans. Praise God for giving Ken this vision! Thanks, Ken!

Next, we went on a Museum Tour starting with Buddy and Kay Davis at the Dinosaur Den. Buddy shared how he shaped each of the dino's on display in the den in his own garage. Did you know that the T-Rex had to be cut into several sections in order to move it into the Dinosaur Den? You'd never know it! Great work, Buddy!

After leaving Buddy, we traveled to the Main Hall where Museum Registrar, Stephanie McDorman, shared about her role in securing and logging in fossils. Answers in Genesis receive numerous fossil donations and it is Stephanie's job to keep a log of everything. Then, it is determined which items will be suitable for display. Have you seen the fossil display of the fish eating a fish? It's a rare find and it also reveals incredible truths about the Global Flood. Great work, Stephanie!

Our next step on the tour was on the Creation Walk. Artist and Designer, Travis Wilson, shared his triumphs and struggles with creating the incredible display of the Garden of Eden area. Many hours of research and hands-on work went into every display. Way to go, Travis!

Dr. Georgia Purdom, a molecular geneticist, explained the research and design of the Natural Selection exhibit. She is quite intelligent, and an O.S.U. graduate! If you haven't taken time to see this new display, make a point to on your next visit. Look for the three blind, deaf, albino mice next to the Antibiotic Resistance display in that exhibit. Great work, Georgia!

The last stop on the tour included dessert (if you pre-ordered it) and a Q & A time with Dr. David Menton. Dr. Menton is a wealth of information and a wonderful person to converse with. Thanks for all you do, Dr. Menton!

If this event comes around next year, take time to attend it and to personally meet some fellow believers and professionals in the field of Creationism. It will encourage them and enrich your life.

Annual Meeting Notice

ARK Foundation Annual Meeting is May 10 @ 7:00 pm. It is important as a going concern that we meet and re-elect Directors for the organization. We need a quorum of paid up members and Directors attending to do that. After a smooth meeting, we will see the never before shown recorded footage of the interviews Ron did at the Puluxy River "Creation Evidence Museum", including the actual rock recording a dinosaur stepping into the track of a human being found in that area and much more. The facility is much better than the old trailers and the special guided tour Ron and Brenda got is very fascinating in its details.

Find the 30 Books of the Bible

There are 30 books of the Bible in this paragraph. Can you find them? This is a most remarkable puzzle. It was found by a gentleman on an airplane seat pocket on a flight from Los Angeles to Honolulu, keeping him occupied for hours. He enjoyed it so much he passed it on to some friends. One friend from Illinois worked on this while fishing from his John boat. Another friend studied it while playing his banjo. Elaine Taylor a columnist friend, was so intrigued by it she mentioned it in her weekly newspaper column. Another friend judges the job of solving this puzzle so involving, she brews a cup of tea to help her nerves. There will be some names that are really easy to spot, that's a fact. Some people however will soon find themselves in a jam, especially, since the book names are not necessarily capitalized. Truthfully, from answers we get, we are forced to admit, it usually takes a minister or a scholar to see some of them at the worst. Research has shown that something in our genes is responsible for the difficulty we have in seeing the books in this paragraph. During a recent fund raising event which featured this puzzle, the Alpha Phi lemonade booth set a new sales record. The local paper, the Chronicle, surveyed over 200 patrons who reported this puzzle was one of the most difficult they had ever seen. As Daniel Humana humbly puts it, the books are all right there in plain view, hidden from sight. Those able to find all of them will hear lamentations from those that have to be shown. One revelation that may help is that books like Timothy and Samuel may occur without their numbers. Also, keep in mind that punctuation and spaces in the middle are normal. A chipper attitude will help you compete really well against those who claim to know the answers. Remember, there is no need for a mad exodus. There are really 30 books of the Bible lurking somewhere in the paragraph, waiting to be found.

“The Ghost Whistler” - It all started when I was just a little child. I heard a strange, yet somewhat familiar, sound coming from the backyard. Was it an animal making a sound before it strikes? Was it an owl making its night time sounds from the top of the trees? Actually, I knew it wasn't an owl's hoot since they have such a distinct and recognizable sound. This sound kind of reminded me of my mom when she wants me to come indoors for dinner, like a whistle. The only problem was that I was too far from the house to hear my mom's whistle. She can whistle, but not very loud. As a matter of fact, her whistle is so low sometimes that my brother and I would laugh at the sound she made. It still made us come to her, even if it wasn't the way a whistle should sound. Who am I to laugh! I couldn't make a good whistling sound if my life depended on it!

This whistling noise was different. It was strong and seemed to draw, at least me anyways. I just had to find out where it was coming from. What if someone was in trouble and needed help? I really felt that it was my mission to locate the Whistler. I cut through the backyard and ventured into the neighbor's yard. Nobody was home at the time. The house was dark and their dog was standing at the window barking at me. I called it by name and told him to quiet down. I guess he remembered me since he stopped barking and left the window. Then, I went into the next neighbor's yard and the one after that and so on, all the way down my street. Nothing. It was like a whistle that came out of thin air. Now, I couldn't tell if it was luring me or following me. It was just always there! Suddenly it dawned on me that something, or someone, really had my attention. I decided I'd better get back to my house where my parents were. They'd protect me if I needed it. Then it sounded again! The whistle was even stronger this time. There was something different about this one, though. Something that changed my perception of it. It wasn't coming from the trees, the neighbor's or anywhere on earth. It was like it was coming from the sky! Then I remembered Zechariah 10:8, “I will whistle for them and gather them,....” It was the Lord whistling! How could I be so blessed as to hear the sound of the Lord! He was reminding me that I was in His tender care. His whistle came through the wind like a ghost whistle. In other words, I couldn't see Him, but I could hear His whistle. He was the Ghost Whistler!

Hey, kids, always remember that God is trying to get your attention. Are you listening?

Until next time, be strong and courageous in the Lord! TJ
